The Word of God[1] for the Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

The Epistle of Jesus Christ to the Ministers of the Altars in Romania

Between heaven and earth, between earth and heaven, the dwellings of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, and of the heavenly and angelic powers, come into being, in the midst of which stands the throne of God, and God gave the earth to the sons of men, as it is written.

God the Son, came to earth two thousand years ago, was incarnated by the Holy Spirit, became Man and was the Word of God among men. I came and made Myself known with divine power on earth, I showed Myself as the Savior coming from heaven to the people of God from that time, and they did not rejoice in My coming from heaven to earth, when they took Me as a man by giving Me to the lowest punishment for a guilty man, giving Me death on the cross, and after that, I was then among them for forty days, the resurrected Christ, only then will they know Me coming from heaven to them and then received by them for their salvation from the sins in which they lived on earth, oh, and even so they did not open up to Me, so that I could enter and be with them and for them in the world afterwards.

Here I come again, as I promised two thousand years ago that I would come, and I have not gone anywhere with My coming and I have gone to My Father's, to the church of Christ, My house that two thousand years ago was placed on earth, so that I could live in it with My Spirit, that it might go further and be Christ's, and then that it might be the house that would welcome Me at My coming with the reward according to each one's deed, as it is written, oh, but all the people together with their shepherds, all have strayed from the path with God on it, and I have come home, for the Scriptures sent Me to come.

And, if I came and cried out that I had come, (Matt: 25/6)[2], behold, I am not received, unknown to the masters of My house, and I, the true Master of the house, they are calling Me a liar, they are calling Me a heretic, together with those who knew My coming and the voice of the Shepherd and opened to Me, and I am a householder with them, I am speaking with them and they are sharing with Me over the earth the word of My coming, and My name is the Word of God, as the Scriptures call Me in My coming, (Apoc: 19/13)[3], and I have been coming as a word on earth for seventy years on the land of the Romanian nation and I have been working a new heaven and a new earth, a new house for God and man, for all things have been ruined for two thousand years, when I promised and said at that time: «He who believes in Me I will come to him, I will make a house with him, I will dine with him and I will appear to him». (See John 14:23)

[2] «Now, since the bridegroom was late, they all became tired and fell asleep». (Matt: 25/6)

[3] «I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! And its rider is called Faithful and True. He judges and make war in righteousness.

His eyes are a flame of fire, and on His head are many crowns. He has names written [TR/CT omits "names written"] and a Name written which no one knows but Himself.

He is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood, and His Name is "The Word of God".» (Apoc: 19/11-13)

However, My two thousand year-old known house on earth did not believe Me and did not receive Me, and I have now done this fulfillment with the disregarded and I have a citadel on earth and sons who are receptive and bearers of Christ in them, sharing Me as My word over the earth, oh, and I am now speaking fully to make Myself known, as I am knocking again and again at the door of the house, known as the house of God, the church established in My name, two thousand years ago, and at whose door I have been knocking for seventy years; however, as two thousand years ago, My house has been closed from the inside, while I have not given reception and belief, and I, the Lord, have gathered My faithful sons from the people and revealed Myself to them with My coming from the Father to men and I have an establishment over which I have fulfilled what I said two thousand years ago, when I said: «He who believes in Me I will come to him, I will make a house with him, I will dine with him and I will appear to him».

Oh, peace to you, that is how I would like to say to you now, to you, who are on earth the masters of the house, called the house of God, but behold, I cannot say to you: peace to you! However, I am telling you from outside that I enter through closed doors with My coming to you. There is no peace between Me and you, as you cannot be one with Me if I come and reveal Myself to you, so that I may have a home and welcome with you, so that I may dine at the table with you and reveal Myself to you when you do not open to Me when I come to speak to you. Oh, how can I show Myself if you do not open to Me when I knock to enter? Oh, this is why I told My disciples, two thousand years ago, on the evening of the last supper between Me and them, that I would no longer take My Passover with them until I take it anew in My kingdom on earth.

I went to the Father after My resurrection to prepare a place for My beloved ones among men and to be with them, and they with Me, and so that I could come to give them holy faith, with which they could know Me in My coming to them, receive Me to make My house with them, a new supper for Me and for them and to show Myself with them and from them on earth, coming from the Father with the fulfillments of a new heaven and a new earth and a new Jerusalem, and to establish with them on earth the renewed Passover, promised two thousand years ago to My beloved ones, who will receive Me.

Oh, for two thousand years, I have been crying with the Father among those in heaven after the work of the flock of the church, left to Me from the Father, as an inheritance in the hands of those who would be My faithful servants for service and for My return to Mine, as the promise through the Scriptures was worked out, testified by My own mouth, which said then that God left prophets and messengers to visit the house and the fruit of His vineyard, and that the servants left for ministering became masters and killed the messengers who were to enter and visit the vineyard, and that then the Son of the Master Himself came and they killed Him, too, oh, and behold, again and again masters on earth over the house and vineyard of God, over the flock, over all things of the Lord's, and one does not open for Me to enter, and again I am called the liar, the stranger, the lost and the wandering, as they do not know My voice as the Shepherd, who are lords over My inheritance, as I would not want what is written for the hired shepherds and strangers to the holy things of God to happen to them; however, it is written that they will be cast from their thrones as guilty before the Lord of the vineyard, and their headstrongness is as strong as they were two thousand years ago and guilty of My death together with those who are guilty before God and before themselves.

I have come now, after seven thousand years of God's work between heaven and earth and after two thousand years since My coming incarnate among men for their salvation, oh, and I have not found acceptance with My work, with My coming as word on earth, and the priests of the church gave Me up for punishment seventy years ago, after My first words, brought and written among men, and I have not been silent since then until today, and I am crying and keep crying at the door of the house, known as the house of God, oh, and the priests of all times, of this time of My word on earth, persecuted Me, during which I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, have chosen from the flock of the church a welcoming people and I have been their Shepherd, as I was two thousand years ago to My disciples then, and I have taught them the work of the son of God, as I did those then chosen from the people, so that they would believe in My coming from the Father and to leave through them the testimony on earth, My presence with them and the prophecy of My coming now, so that I may come and fulfill it.

And now, listen, you who call yourselves shepherds and teachers of the flock of the Orthodox Church in the Romanian nation, land and nation destined by God from the beginning to be for Me now the land of My coming word on earth, My return from the Father for the preparation of a people who will welcome Me and be able to come to earth as word and shepherd with them before My great and fearful day, when everyone will receive payment according to their deeds, as it is written, oh, and people do not have deeds with which eternity to receive, when they are not shepherded towards heaven, towards the heavenly dwellings with their life on earth.

Listen, you who call yourselves deaf and blind for My coming word on earth! It has not been only three and a half years for Me to come and work and speak on Romanian land at this time. For seventy years, I have been leaving a word in the midst of this nation, knocking at your locked gates and you have not opened to Me, calling Me a heretic and a foreign spirit. Oh, stubborn children, I am God from eternity and I am from here on the Word of God over the earth, for it is written that I come with this word and bear a new name: the Word of God. (Apoc: 19/13) I did not have to stop by your place to give Me permission to come and work, but you had to open to the Lord, but none of the ministers of the church had done this openly during the seventy years of My word on Romanian soil, but only those of you who secretly received Me, kept Me, worked My word, and they were and are written in My book today.

I will send this word throughout the earth from this day on as a testimony between Me and you, after the seventy years of prophecy in the midst of this nation beloved of God, when you have now secretly added fuel to the fire, again and again, for the day when I, the Lord, established My celebration at Maluri village, the fulfillment of the seventy years of prophecy, My word spoken for the first time in 1955, and here it is speaking to this day as its going forth over time in the midst of the Romanian nation was prophesied.

I will send this word of testimony throughout the earth, making known to you the sin of your unbelief, with which you thwarted My joy and comfort that I had to share with the Romanians that day, and you must not be angry with Me for announcing your sin of stir over the flock, because behold, I am now speaking so constructively over you, after you struck to hurt My joy that I wanted to share with those called to come to My celebration, and it would be Me who would be angry, not you with Me, after I had placed in your arms three large books in which I shared the seventy years of My word, so that you would know its grace and power, so that you would know that I am this word that you turn your back on always, always, so that it would be good for you alone with your standing over My flock.

I have come as a herald to the Romanians with this word of longing for man. I built My citadel, from the gate of which I made Myself known as a word throughout the earth, and you, the last ones, after striking at God for thirty years, have been committing the sin of unbelief, the most difficult sin to forgive among all the sins committed by those who oppose God with their lives.

Oh, stubborn sons, I am as close as the path of a prayer that the one with a longing for Me in him raises to heaven, and I am as close as the word that I have been placing in the book, through the hands of those who have been writing it for Me, and which is lowered from above to be placed in the book by those who have ears from Me to hear with them from God.

So many that have not been shepherded have gone to sects and to wandering from the church, for which you will be questioned by God because you did not shepherd them, and they have fallen to false and cunning shepherds, and you are still striking at those who are carrying Me to you with My prophecy, and you call heretics those who do not violate any dogma, any canon of church order, for I, the Lord, have worked and am working through the church. However, what work do you have to work on, if you do not shepherd My flock and My orthodoxy like Me? (See the selection topic: „The true church[4]", r.n.)

Oh, you have joined the work of the antichrist, and this is clearly visible everywhere, and everyone knows, everyone knows what you are like and how you mock the flock under you, forcing it through priests subject to you to bring Christians from all over to your feet and to show yourselves with them and before them and the world and to boast that you are followed by those who seek God and do not find Him, oh, and there are those without consolation in their sorrows and have no comfort from you. Neither the flock nor the priests find comfort in you, and all feel oppressed and forced to serve you, those who sit in the upper seats of the Christian flock, oh, and you do not know how many priests with much grace I have written to Me that they take from My word and carefully feed their flock, but whom you force to stand upright to your commandments, and they take comfort from My word and hide, so that you do not find them and do not deprive them later to harm them or even kill them, for you deprive the flock, so that it will be good for you and to preserve your glory and luxury in which you live on earth, and the flock is lost in all kinds of wanderings and sins and you do not give life to the downcast and do not look for them in their wounds and do not find their sighs, and I am coming to earth as a word, I am coming because of their mercy; however, My word disturbs you from the midst of the Orthodox flock, divided to you by My least servants, by the humble and with faith for My coming to them, oh, and it does not suit you, and you call them fallen from the bosom of the church just because they do not resemble you in life, in unbelief. However, here is what I have done over them, and I tell you now, how I am shepherding this people of Mine, so that all may know, as all may know what you do and what you are, so that all may know what God is doing in the midst of the people of My word today, that since My beginning with them in the year 1955, I have taught those to whom the Father revealed through My word, I have taught them how they can be among the sons counted in My renewed people and I have told them first to learn from Me the love of God and their life with Me, and from their love may all the fulfillments of the life of Christians of this holy word be born. I have told them that they would have to sanctify their living and life, and after every Sunday, they would fast from food on Monday for the work of God's angels over them and through them, and that they would take a drop of holy water and a piece of anaphora in the morning, and the same in the evening, lest the spirit of satan may enchant them to break the fast ordained for them during the day, and on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday they would have a break from eating after ten o'clock in the day and spend Monday, Wednesday, and Friday with fasting days, and on Sunday they would go to church and receive communion more and more often after the proper preparation, so that they would prove to Me their love for Me throughout their time with God on earth. Then, I have taught them the gift and grace and power of prayer and vigil, and I gave them as a holy work the rule left in the Book[5] of Hours, and then the books for service in the church, and that each one should establish over his house the entire daily order of the Christian fulfilling according to the teaching of the church, and that no one should lack prayers and akathists, canons and chapels[6] to the saints, as befits the faithful and those living with heaven on earth, for David was king, but he did not lack from his lips and from his soul the gift and grace of prayer and praise to the Lord and fasting from food and times of balance, of testing over his life with God.

I have advised My renewed people not to replace prayer with work, and I have taught them to combine their day and night time with the Christian rule in every Christian home and to sing to the Lord, for the singing of man to God is pleasing to Me, so that they may not outshine the birds of the sky with their singing more than the man who sings praises and prayers and holy hymns to the Lord.

I have told the sons of My people to beware of temptations and sins, lest they fall from God through sin, and those who obeyed completely have remained strong until today, from one to another, inheriting from one to another. However, those, who could not with full faithfulness and steadfastness walk My way with them, have again become unfulfilling of love and longing for heaven, and here is My teaching over them for seventy years until today. And with the little ones,

[5] A church book containing certain prayers and hymns for different hours of the day and which once also served as an alphabet book, r.n.

[6] Religious service of praise and invocation of the Virgin Mary, Jesus, or a saint; prayer dedicated to one of these, r.n.

I have fulfilled Myself more, for I came out from under the obstacle in which I was hidden with the work of My word for more than thirty-five years. (During the dictatorship of the communist red beast, r.n.) And the other half of the seventy years was the announcement of the time brought by Me, and they brought out My word coming to earth from under the secret and they announced Me everywhere. And you, servants of the altars, have rebelled and have been ashamed of God and of His coming, and you have begun to cast contempt and place heavy stones on My mouth, which speaks in the midst of My renewed people, and you have accused for Me those who are dividing Me among you and all afterwards; however, I, the Lord, am as true by this word as you have been My true adversaries throughout this seventy-year period, and whose history has now been put on film[7] and is being shared everywhere, so that everyone may know the Lord's word over the Romanian land, and you adversaries and united with the antichrist in his service over Christ. And I have now written a letter to you, so that you may be ashamed of what you have woven stealthily and secretly on My day of celebration of My word, the seventy-year anniversary on Romanian land, that you have incited the priests to riot, so that they would stop those who would come to the celebration, oh, and everything is revealed and you are ashamed of everything you are working on the Christian flock that you do not shepherd, but only rule with the force of the staff of shepherds opposed to God and the flock under you, threatened not to come near to do My will and not to take from the source of My word, in which you strike as opponents, and not at all as keepers of the Spirit of Christ through the church, over which you only rule and do not shepherd.

And, I have sat with a written letter, between Me and you on Sunday, and I am still asking from you acceptance and reconciliation with Me, because many of you, priests and altar servers, feed on enough of this source of grace, and many Christians seek it, and you cannot have full dominion over My church, especially, since you commit so many deviations from the path of the church without fear of response, and the not shepherded flock is lost, keeps getting lost, and you are still striking at My word, which is renewing everything, as it is written, and which will have great fulfillments, as it is written in the word of God, which is not silent to find its fulfillment.

You are now showing that you have no idea about this open and written book, between Me and you; however, this book is the testimony that I, Jesus Christ, wrote to you to reveal to the light, your ugly and hostile work, against Me and against the priests, you have put in place to spread the threat against the Christians, who have prepared to come to the seventy-year celebration of My word on the Maluri village, and that you have worked so vilely, proving that you know and that you have read My word only to lie in wait and strike, only to oppose the coming of My word with fulfillment on earth.

However, I am urging you with mercy to seek to reconcile with Me while time allows you to do so, for this word is not your enemy, rather, it is My coming, My patience, My patient love for you.

This word is I, the One Who is, and I am now signing My book to you with My wonderful name:

Jesus Christ, the Word of God.

Amen, amen, amen.
12-10-2025.
